

St. John Paul II Catholic High School seeks Development Director

St. John Paul II Catholic High School (JP2), in Huntsville, Alabama, seeks to secure a Development Director to help further its mission and more fully engage constituent and philanthropic sources of support. The ideal candidate will be well-versed in all areas of financial development, while possessing the requisite skill sets to build, maintain, and grow meaningful relationships throughout current and future constituencies. The Development Director will be expected to bring the energy, charisma, executive administrative experience, and fund-raising skills necessary for this school community and to build on its considerable strengths and traditions. A minimum of five years of executive level experience in Advancement and Development is desired, with seasoned skills in the following: staff management, annual fund and major gift cultivation, planned giving, capital campaign expansion, event planning, marketing, recruitment, and public relations. JP2 needs a Christ-centered servant leader that embraces, models, and champions the traditions and values of a Catholic education.
